Search for a car
As a customer
I want to search for a car
So that I can make reservation

Acceptance criteria
Customer can view list cars based on the search parameters,
Customer is not able to search if search fields are empty.
Customer is only able to see models of the cars if he entered the brand name.

Main Scenario
A, enter the brand of the car in the search field
B, select the model of the car
C, click search button.

Reserve a car.
As a customer
I want to reserve a car
So that I can have a car available for pick up at a particular time.

Acceptance Criteria
Customer can select a car for reservation
Customer can enter pick up and return dates for the selected car into the reservation form.
Customer can send the request to reserve the car.
Customer is not able to send the request if any required field in the request form is empty.
Customer can not send request if a car is not selected.
Customer can select payment options.
If customer can pay with credit/debit cards

Main Scenario
  i.Customer selects a car
  ii.System prompt customer to enter pick up and return dates.
  iii.Customer enters dates
  iv.Customer is prompt to select payment options
  v.Customer enters payment details and send.
  vi.Click on send request button.
  vii.Customer gets confirmation.

Employee confirms car return

As an employee
I want to get customer rental details
So that I can confirm car return and update the car availability status.

Acceptance criteria
Employee is able to fetch customer rental details

Employee is able confirm return
Employee is able to update car availability status

Main Scenario
Employee enters customer's driver license number.
System returns customer rental details
Employee clicks complete return button
System set car availability status
System complete the return
Employee gets confirmation messages.